A Fow Plain Questions. Some time since the langar Commercial began the publication of a "serial" communication on the tariff question which but the same line of "argument" is 19sumed in last evening's edition, only by a | a different form, inpracing this that us not by editorial fastead of a communication, since the late election thousands of laboring Asmen left the Democratic party because of she is head by to the protective system, and redge. The conflict of the defence, how-the editor of the Commercial will find be over him made to plant that much shoring has undertaken more of a contract than he is able to fulfil when he attempts to con-behaviored in and it. Blaine has visc there then through his own free trule; theories or those supplied by a "prominent citizen" that they are not benefited by protection, especially as the laboring menare just now soflering from the effects of the Democratic attack on the tarift.

If the "revenue reform" or free trade policy of the Demacratic party is calculatprincy of the (penteratio party is calculated to plove advantageous to the laboring man why was it necessary to attempt to decove them in the late campaign? If a protective unit its such at burden to the Libering men, why did not the Democratic party, which now claims to be the especial champled of that important class of citizens, take a hild stand in favor, of the abolishment of the system, instead of shouting itself house in declaying that the tarri was not an issue before the people? Why did the leaders of the Democratic forces invite such a pronounced prevenue reformer," or from triader, is Senator Vance-to keep in the back ground until the electhen was over it the ideas entertained by that gentleman were seemful to the future preliare of the people? If the tariff is in direct conflict with the prosperity of the laboring men why were not such well known tree traders as Messrs. Curlisle, Morrison, and Hum Invited to speak in the great manufacturing century in order to collighten the people, whose inbar is of the Eastern to the Bokten and Maine, their capital, as in their duty in the late, and the practical union of the interests of clecion? These gentlemen are henestly the Eastern, botton and Maine, and Maine opposed to the infoteetive system and K.Central Rainonia, is regardle by the that system is alone responsible for the minority stockholders of the Maine Charral present degression in this country, why Rhilroad for the interests alike of the did the New York Ford feel constrained speckholders at the three corporation, and to denounce their lefforts in Congress as "the studid course of frevenue andy" witlings" and says that they had so "seriously jeopardized Democratic success" that the services of Mr. Rendall, a well known proteetionist, although 'n Democrat, were in-valuable in "govercoming their, tolly" in States where the Ithoring tren form an lin-
